T. HEADLEY'S NEW WORK, will be published 25th of September: being Lives of WINFIELD SCOTT and ANDREW JACKSON, by J. T. Headley. I vol. 12mo., with Portraits. Uniform with "Napoleon and his Marshals."

Scott and Jackson are here placed together as the two military men who have made the deepest impressions on their country since the time of Washington. They both achieved a brilliant repussion in the war of 1812, and by the battles of Chippews. Niagara, New-Orleans, &c., gave their country a reputation at home and abroad, and though differing wifely in some obstracteristics, they were very similar in others. The author has not only sketched the biography of each, but has given a faithful and graphic description of the brilliant battles in which they were engaged. The biography of Winfield Ecoks, which constitutes the greater part of the volume, is full and authentic, the materials for it having been derived from public soments and from many officers who had served under Scott. It presents to the reader also a pannramic view of the brilliant campaign of Mexico, embracing the storming and capitulations of Vera Cruz, the battles of Cerro Gordo, Climubusco, Contreras, Molino del Ray, Chapaltapes, storming of Mexico, Trinumphal Entry, with description of the scenery, personal incidents, &c. The author has fully smitted of the reputation acquired by "Aspoleon and his Marshals," and other works, of which over 200,000 volumes have been sold—By CHARLES SCR.
